than people for a broader love to harbonity, a more zealous effort to reasone the failen through the force of lave, a love such as exhibited by Christ in his passion for the souls of men.

Speaking first of "Love's Record," he traced the course of this love for manifold the force of lave, a watching the first over Absalon; in the New Testaments, as shown in Noahi's pleading to rescue men from the flood; in David's Krief over Absalon; in the New Testament, a seeking love, a watching Jove, a matchless love. He continued "The words of Christ burn with this love. It is written in history. It is seen in our own day in the research work in great cities, where exists a mistery and neverty such as well-nurtived people have no conception of, allows seen it in the work of Sain Hadder than the trace of the service the Rev. Mr. There is not a man so low in plus city but that he could be loved to filchmond—Love never talleth!

'I have told you of Love's Record, he trace of the service he research that the research have the service of God, and to the unsaved to accept the service seen it in the work of Sain Hadder have the seen it in the work of Sain Hadder have seen it in the work of Sain Hadder have seen it in the work of Sain Hadder have seen it in the work of Sain Hadder have seen it in the work of Sain Hadder have seen it in the work of Sain Hadder have seen it in the work of Sain Hadder have the seed of the service the Rev. There is no place in the Church of God for a penurious man, if the influence of a man does not go be soon his seet he is not living the force of the service have the beauting of the service of the service of God for a sellish man; no place in the Church of God for a penurious man, if the influence of a man does not go be been have the service of the

Dr. Chapman's Appreciation Of the Newspaper's Aid

"In the meetings we have had in various cities, we have relied largely on the newspapers for assistance. Almost without exception the newspapers linve helped as in every concelvable way, and have proved a most valuable adjunct to our offorts. From what I have seen since I have been in Richmond, this city will be no exception.

"I have been in Richmond, this city will be no exception.

"I have been informed that the morning paper will make a special price for the three weeks of the meetings. It will greatly extend the influence and usefulness of this campaign if copies of the morning paper containing reports of the it are sent breadcost. I trust you will not forget that the nawapapers are a great help to us in our meetings, and hope that many of these special papers will be sent away."—Statement of Dr. Chapman from platform of Auditorium just night.
